

May 8, 2017

Dear FCC:

Please keep net neutrality as it is and leave the Internet open and free for people to use. This promotes job growth, helps the economy and is in the best interest of our country.

The Internet is a utility and ISP's should not control access. This will stifle growth and the backlash will be tremendous.

Thank you!

Thomas Young